1983 TIDE

Mr. Gardner has a flair. He is sensitive, caring, and often uses his quick wit to start off everyone's day right. He's not only a great teacher but also a great guy. He loves to get involved and always encourages school spirit. We will never forget Mr. Gardner . . . or his crummy jokes!

DEDICATION

How does one describe Mr. Chiminello? -with a beard or without? Easy-going and always patient with those not so—easy to handle students, Mr. Chiminello is liked by all. Around every corner one can see his warm smile; the class of "83 will remember a real friend.

ACTIVITIES

DRAMA CLUB

The drama club's first production of the 1982-1983 season was a collection of stories, sketches, and monologues by one of America's favorite story-tellers, Mr. Mark Twain. The show, called TWAIN BY THE TALE, ran for three nights — December 9, 10, and 11, starring Joey Hewitt as Mr. Twain himself, and a talented cast of players including Kerry Ryer, Chris Worsh, Kim Brough, Dave Mitchell, Laurie Gettings, Warren Garrett, Kimm Upton, Gary Killen, Mary Beth Hewitt, and Michael Shutt who brought all the characters and narrators to life for everyone to enjoy. From an eye-opening look at bureaucratic red-tape and regulations in "NOAH AND THE BUREAUCRACY" to an ironic peek at the age-old tradition of "THE GREAT FRENCH DUEL", Director Bern Budd with the help of stage manager-Mary Beth Hewitt, her assistant-Michael Shutt, and technical director-Chris Geary managed to bring out the best in both cast and crews for a thoroughly enjoyable production.

1982 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

April 30, 1982 was the event of the year for the class of "83" - their Junior-Senior Prom at Christos II. "We've Got Tonight" by Bob Seger was the theme song. The Jerry Seeco Band provided the music and a slide show of upperclassmen candids was shown which added excitement to the evening.

The evening was quite a success and the celebration continued the next day at Barnstable beach. A special and well-deserved thank you from the entire class of "83" is given to Mrs. Coll who, without her devotion and help, would not have made the memorable night possible.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY FALL INDUCTION

The Fall Induction of the National Honor Society was held December 8, 1982 at 7 p.m. at the Marshfield Country Club. Twenty-three members of the class of 1983 became new members.

Kathleen Desmond, President of the National Honor Society, presided over the evenings events. After welcoming everyone, she then introduced the inductees. They were sworn-in by Monitor Jean Marie Kane. Kathy and John Brady, Vice President, presented each of the new members with a pin and cartificate. Acting Principal Peter Deftros, in turn congratulated the members. All present enjoyed a meaningful message to the new inductees by Arthur Barry, Assistant Principal of Marshfield High School.

SENIOR NIGHT OUT

Saturday January 22 turned out to be one of the highlights for the Seniors. Along with good atmosphere and good friends came GOOD DANCING! Mike Keeley provided the music while we provided the dancing (all night long!) Although it was a great time, no one wanted it to end. It was a fantastic beginning to a fantastic year—1983.

HALLOWEEN DRESS-UP DAY

HALLOWEEN DRESS-UP

"' By the year 2006, the men known today as the Blues Brothers will only exist in the classical memories department of your own personal yearbook. So tonight, ladies and gentlemen, while we still can, let us welcome from Marshfield, Massachusetts the band of Joliet Jake and Elwood Blues . . . The Blues Brothers.

- Mike Laffin and Terry Martin

Other students costume were: Kevin Stanton: red-hot devil, Brian Mandile: juicy bunch of grapes, Jill Hahn: extra-strength Tylenol, Eric Vaisey: a crazed killer, and Kathy Desmond was the best-dressed man.

POWDER PUFF GAME

On November 7, 1982, at 1:00 p.m., on the South River Field, the Junior and Senior girls once again went to battle in a fierce game of football. The juniors overpowered the Seniors, 6-0. The captain of the Junior team was Sue Beers and the co-captains of the Senior team were Cindy Cook and Colleen "Skids" Radley. Although the Juniors won, some great defensive moves were made by Barbara Beers, Jayne Allen, Marion Keyes, and Debbie Triner.

The people who never receive any recognition for their stamina, guts, and irresistible figures are the cheerleaders: Kevin McDonough, John Mahoney, Terry Martin, Brian Mandile, Ed Creed, John and Mike Moss, Mike Almeder, Tom Corbo, Mark Kiley, John Wiggin, Kevin Stanton and Kennan Cornell (Junior).

A special thanks to Tom Dempsey and Mike Hocking (captains) and Steve Hocking and Jim Vaughn (officials).

THE AIR GUITAR COMPETITION

On Saturday night, December 4th, the Junior class presented "The Dance." The highlight of the night, aside from the 70 temperature, was the eagerly awaited Air Guitar Competition.

Four semi-talented groups of students and one extremely professional group of faculty members were introduced by Pat Spellman to the assembled multitude. The Pointer Sisters (Kerri Shaughnessy, Ann Reilly, and Marguerite Morris) opened the festivities. Sonny and Cher (Amy Camelio and Tracey Brennan) crooned the next time. The delicately petite Go-Go's (Nick Nobili, Joe Sheehan, Dave Rand, Tom McGrath, and Tom Pomella) "Got the beat" next. The maginificent Beach Boys (Mr. Gardner, Mr. Pearch, Mr. Jarvis, Mr. Haddad, and Mr. Dupuis) then brought the crowd to its feet with rousing renditions of "Help Me, Rhonda" and "Barbara Ann." Knowing they had a tough act to follow, The Blues Brothers (Terry Martin, Mike Laffin, and their band) pulled out all the stops and played as if they were "on a mission from God."

The ending was predictable. Everyone thought The Beach Boys were the hit of the show but fell prey to The Blues Brothers' hype and gave them the sympathy vote as the evening's top act. The inevitable cries of "Encore" filled the air, but all the entertainers were too busy backstage posing for Mariner photos and fighting off adoring groupies.

SPIRIT WEEK, PEP RALLY, THANKSGIVING GAME

Spirit Week is one which every class looks forward to. This year there was a lot of competition between each class for the Spirit Award. Each class showed definite effort in decorating their respective hallways.

Freshmen: Sink the Sailors
Sophomores: Wizard of Oz
Juniors: Pac Ram-Video Games
Seniors: Abracadabra- Rams can do Magic

The Juniors won, defeating the Seniors who had won the Spirit Award during their Sophomore and Junior years. At the pep rally, the Seniors applauded the Juniors for their effort and spirit.

Then that Thursday, November 25, 1982, the Rams played the Sailors at Scituate. Although the Rams lost, 16-6, some of the Rams showed tremendous skill. Mark Young caught the touchdown pass from Mike Hocking. (Tri-captain) Steve Hocking received the MVP award for his fine plays in defensive and offensive tackle. The other tri-captains, John O'Toole and Joe Caliri also played an excellent game.

HOMECOMING

On October 23, 1982 Marshfield High School played against Weymouth North for our Homecoming Game. Halftime activities included the M.H.S. band and the crowing of the Queen and her court. The queen was Julie Stack. Her first runner-up was Suzanne Fender and, her second runner-up was Alison Hill. Other members of the royal court were Tina Emanuel, Krissy Kolar, and Kathy Desmond. The final score of the game was Rams-0; Weymouth North-18. The crowning of the King, Larry Brackett, and runner-ups were John Brady, Mike MacKinnon, Kevin Stanton, Geoff Sisk, and John Gordon, occurred that night at the Homecoming Dance.
